Dear Mr. Wood:

At the suggestion of the Classification Committee of the Rochester Numismatic Association I am writing you for suggestions. We have twelve cases of coins from all over the world belonging to the Rochester Numismatic Association now exhibited in a room by themselves in the Municipal Museum here.

They have been classified roughly and have type-written labels for identification purposes but the committee and Association are both dissatisfied with the arrangement, but are perplexed as to how to proceed. We are, therefore, asking if you might offer us some suggestions in order to clarify the situation.

What method do you pursue with your own coins and how exhibit them? If you could give us the benefit of your advice the entire Association would appreciate it very much as they wish to make as creditable an exhibit in the city here as possible.

Dear Sir:-

I am sending you today under separate cover,
one of our 25th Anniversary Commemorative Medals.

When the Club members voted to have this Medal struck, it was specified for subscription only.
This was carried out and only 30 Medals were struck,
one each for your Club, the Boston Numismatic Society, our own collection, and other members received one each, and I have six of them, which I purchased for myself. There are no others available.

Hoping this Medal will find a place in your Club collection, I remain,

Yours truly,

J. Baker Harginski
